Course Title	Data Storytelling
Course name on badge	Data Storytelling	CPD Hours or points awarded	1
Training or Completion date	23/11/2026	Expiry date (if applicable)	No expiry
Delivery Type	Webinar	Assessed	No

Aims

Aims:
• Explore how our analytics team is pushing beyond traditional boundaries using innovation, creative thinking, and agentic AI to transform the way we surface and communicate insights.
• Equip attendees with practical ideas and inspiration to reimagine how they visualize data and tell compelling stories within their own teams, and take meaningful next steps on their professional journey.

Skills

• Dashboard Design & Visual Storytelling
• Data-Driven Decision Making
• Innovation & Creative Problem-Solving
• Cross-Functional Collaboration
• Growth Mindset

Outcomes

Having completed this session, you'll walk away with fresh perspectives on how innovation and curiosity are reshaping the way we understand and communicate data, and what that means for you and your team. We'll explore how our analytics team is moving beyond traditional dashboards to create visuals that truly guide decisions and spark conversations. You'll also see how we're weaving AI into our storytelling workflow — using it to shape and design dashboards, and optimize the entire dashboard-building process from concept to release. Most importantly, you'll leave with practical inspiration and actionable ideas you can apply directly within your own team and across your professional journey.
